THE

From THURSDAY, March 27th, to THURSDAY April 3d, 1755.

An ACT, to prevent the inveigling, ſtealing and carrying away Negroes and other Slaves in this Province: And to prevent the carrying away of Schooners or Pettiauguas. And alſo, for repealing ſo much of an Act, intitled, an Act for the better ordering and governing Negroes and other Slaves in this Province, as relates to the Time within which Offenders, that are apprehended, ſhall be tried: And giving the Juſtices and Freeholders a Power to poſtpone the Trial of ſuch Offenders.

WHEREAS, by the Laws of this Province, Negroes and other Slaves are deemed to be Chattels perſonal; and are, in every Reſpect, as much the Property of their Owners, as any other Goods or Chattels are. AND WHEREAS no Puniſhment can be inflicted, by the Laws now in Force, upon Perſons inveigling, ſtealing, or carrying away any ſuch Slaves from their lawful Owners or Employers, that is adequate to ſo great and growing an Evil. AND WHEREAS the Inhabitants of this Province are liable to, and receive, great Prejudice and Damage by ſuch unwarrantable and pernicious Practices, and wicked Proceedings. Therefore to prevent and puniſh, as much as may be, ſuch Evil: We humbly pray your moſt ſacred Majeſty, that it may be Enacted, And be it Enacted, by his Excellency JAMES GLEN, Eſquire, Governor in Chief, and Captain-General, in and over his Majeſty's Province of South Carolina, by and with the Advice and Conſent of His Majeſty's Council, and the Houſe of Aſſembly of the ſaid Province, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and immediately after the Twenty-fourth Day of June next, all and every Perſon and Perſons who ſhall inveigle, ſteal, and carry away any Negro or other Slave or Slaves; or ſhall hire, aid, or counſel any Perſon or Perſons to inveigle, ſteal, or carry away, as aforeſaid, any ſuch Slave, ſo as the Owner or Employer of ſuch Slave or Slaves ſhall be deprived of the Uſe and Benefit of ſuch Slave or Slaves; or that ſhall aid any ſuch Slave in running away, or departing from his Maſter or Employer's Service, ſhall be, and he and they is and are, hereby declared to be guilty of Felony; and being thereof convicted or attainted, by Verdict or Confeſſion; or being indicted thereof, ſhall ſtand Mute; or will not directly anſwer to the Indictment; or will peremptorily challenge above the Number of Twenty of the Jury, ſhall ſuffer Death as Felons, and be excluded and debarred the Benefit of Clergy.

II. And Whereas ſeveral of the Inhabitants of this Province, Owners of Schooners and Pettiauguas, are under a Neceſſity of employing others as Patrons and Maſters in the Navigation thereof, and are liable to receive great Prejudice by the wilful and felonious carrying away of ſuch Schooners and Pettiauguas, by the Perſon or Perſons to whoſe Care and Management the ſame are intruſted: Be it therefore Enacted, by the aforeſaid, That all and every Perſon or Perſons that ſhall, after the paſſing of this Act, carry away any Schooner or Pettiaugua committed to his or their Care and Management, fraudulently, or with Intention to ſteal or deprive the Owner of the Property of the ſame, from any Part of this Province, to any other Part thereof or elſewhere, whereby the Owner of ſuch Schooner or Pettiaugua ſhall be deprived of them or any of them, or of the Uſe and Benefit of them or any of them, ſhall be, and he and they is and are, hereby declared to be, guilty of Felony; and being lawfully convicted thereof by Verdict or Confeſſion; or, being indicted thereof, ſhall ſtand Mute; or will not directly anſwer to the Indictment; or will peremptorily challenge above the Number of Twenty of the Jury; or ſhall, upon ſuch Indictment, be outlawed, ſhall ſuffer Death as Felons, and be excluded and debarred of and from the Benefit of Clergy.

III. And Whereas by the Act, intitled, an Act for the better ordering and governing Negroes and other Slaves in this Province, paſſed the Tenth Day of May, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Forty, it is Enacted, That a Juſtice of the Peace ſhall, upon Complaint made, or Information received, of an Offence committed by any Slave, for which capital Puniſhment may be inflicted, commit the Offender to the ſafe Cuſtody of the Conſtable of the Pariſh where ſuch Offence was committed, and ſhall, without Delay, by his Warrant, call to his Aſſiſtance any one of the neareſt Juſtices of the Peace, to aſſociate with him; and ſhall, by the ſame Warrant, ſummon any Number of the neighbouring Freeholders, not leſs than Three nor more than Five, to meet at a certain Day and Place, not exceeding THREE Days after the apprehending of ſuch Slave or Slaves, and finally hear and determine the Matter brought before them, in the moſt expeditious and ſummary Manner. And Whereas it may frequently happen to be impoſſible, to procure the Juſtice, and Freeholders, and the Witneſſes who are capable of giving ſuch Evidence as would ſubject the Offenders to the Puniſhment inflicted by Law, to attend ſuch Trial within the Time by the ſaid Act preſcribed, whereby ſuch Offenders, though guilty may eſcape the Puniſhment due to their Offences. Therefore be it Enacted, by the Authority aforeſaid, that the ſaid Clauſe, ſo far as the ſame relates to the Trial of ſuch Slaves at any Time not exceeding Three Days after his being apprehended, ſhall be, and is hereby, from and immediately after paſſing this Act, repealed.

IV. And be it Enacted, by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Juſtice who ſhall commit the Offender, to iſſue his Warrant, under his Hand and Seal, to call to his Aſſiſtance any One of the neareſt Juſtices of the Peace, to aſſociate with him, and to ſummon the Freeholders as mentioned in the ſaid Act, to meet together with the ſaid Juſtice, at a certain Day and Place, not exceeding SIX Days after the apprehending ſuch Offender. And that it ſhall be left to the Diſcretion of the ſaid Juſtices and Freeholders, at any Time within Six Days after the apprehending ſuch Slave and his being committed by a Juſtice of Peace for Trial, to poſtpone the ſaid Trial to ſuch further Time as they ſhall think proper and appoint, upon Oath being made before them, or Affidavit produced to them, that the Perſon or Perſons who was or were Witneſſes to ſuch Fact for which ſuch Slave was apprehended, is or are ill, and cannot with Safety attend ſuch Trial, or is or are at too great a Diſtance to be there within the Time by this Act directed for ſuch Trial.

LONDON, January 25.

LETTERS from Caſſel, of the 14th inſtant, adviſe, that the Hereditary Princeſs ſet out that day to ſee her children at Gottinger. The landgrave has ordered the articles, by which the Hereditary Prince binds himſelf to preſerve the conſtitution in church and ſtate, to be printed and publiſhed for the ſatisfaction of his ſubjects. By one of theſe articles, the Proteſtants are to keep poſſeſſion of the church belonging to the caſtle, and the prince only reſerves to himſelf the liberty of building a chapel within the caſtle, or adjoining thereto. It is alſo provided, that the Proteſtants and Papiſts, in the territories of Heſſe, ſhall never make uſe of the ſame churches and burying-grounds, as this cuſtom is often attended with miſchievous conſequences in thoſe parts where it prevails. Beſides the written engagements into which prince Frederick has entered, he has declared by word of mouth to his lady, in the moſt expreſſive terms, that, having the greateſt eſteem for her virtues, and nothing more at heart, than to contribute to her ſatisfaction, ſhe may reſt aſſured that he will moſt religiouſly obſerve what has been ſtipulated in relation to her and her children, particularly what concerns the article of religion.

Our laſt advices from Berlin intimate, that the court of France makes ſtrong inſtances to the king of Pruſſia, in order to engage him to intereſt himſelf with the court of Vienna in favour of the republic of Genoa, in relation to its affairs with San Remo. As there is great reaſon to believe, that theſe inſtances will induce the king of Pruſſia to cauſe the arguments on both ſides about this affair, which has made ſo much noiſe, to be laid before him, and as there was ſuch manifeſt injuſtice in the proceedings of the republic in that conteſt, ſome think this monarch will become the advocate for the people of San Remo to the emperor and the empire. Whatever turn his Pruſſian majeſty may take in the buſineſs, the Aulick council of the empire has taken the cauſe under its cognizance, and if the Genoeſe ſhould not happen to ſubmit in time, we ſhall probably, in a ſhort time, hear of a Forum ad Imperatorem, in order to condemn them for contumacy.

There begins to be a better underſtanding between the courts of Vienna and Berlin. But there is no dealing with that of Manheim; no ſtreſs can be laid upon any thing that is concluded at that court, for the miniſters are continually changing. The privy counſellor de Bieren is diſmiſſed. Upon his entering into the miniſtry, he ſtipulated, in his capitulation, that he ſhould never be obliged to act againſt his ſentiments, nor to adopt any contrary to the glory of the true intereſt of his maſter; conſequently he has often oppoſed the views of M. de Vetruen, and ſome other miniſters, and ſome time ago eſtabliſhed with ſo much vigour the ſyſtem of the ſale of employments. It was to this patriotick firmneſs, which his enemies call obſtinacy, that his diſgrace is to be attributed.

On Monday laſt orders were received to enter ſhipwrights in the ſeveral yards; and ſome ſhips are ordered to be got ready with all expedition. Which ſhews we are a little recovered from our lethargy, and not quite ſo indolent, nor ignorant, of the encroachments made on our ſettlements abroad, as ſome people may imagine.

It is ſaid that Col. Bockland's, and another regiment of foot in Scotland, will be ſent to America.

And that lord George Bentinck's and Col. Waldegrave's regiments of foot will come over from Ireland to replace them.

We hear that ſeveral more men of war are preparing for ſea ſervice.

Capt. William Langdon is appointed commander of the Albany ſloop of war.

Capt. Charles Holmes is appointed Captain of the Anſon.

The hon. Richard How, Eſq; is appointed Captain of the Dunkirk, fitting out at Chatham.

Yeſterday ſeveral veſſels were taken up into the ſervice of the government, to carry naval ſtores to Gibraltar and Port-Mahon.

London, Jan. 28. Laſt thurſday his majeſty in council was pleaſed to appoint William Henry Lyttleton, Eſq; to be captain-general and governor in chief in and over his majeſty's Province of South-Carolina in America.

The ſame day a proclamation was iſſued for encouraging ſeamen to enter themſelves on board his majeſty's ſhips of war, by offering each able ſeaman, between twenty and fifty Years of age, who ſhall enter voluntarily, 30 s. bounty money; and every ordinary ſeaman, 20 s. bounty-money.

Thurſday night the preſs for ſeamen was very warm below bridge; and on friday it was very warm for landmen, to man the guardſhips in the room of thoſe who will be removed on board the ſhips lately commiſſioned, and ordered to be got ready with all expedition for ſervice.

The preſs continues very warm for ſeamen, and alſo for landmen to ſerve on board the guardſhips.

Laſt wedneſday public notice was given at Greenwich Hoſpital, for all the ſeamen who are willing to go to ſea, to give in their names, and that they ſhall not fail of the uſual encouragement.

The Diſpatch and Albany, two of majeſty's ſloops of war, with 12 Guns and 110 men, were put in commiſſion on friday.

We are credibly informed, that the hon. commodore Edgecumbe is not to be recalled from his command in the Mediterranean, but reinforced by a ſufficient number of ſhips.

His majeſty's guardſhip Terrible, of ſeventy four Guns, commodore Peat; Pegaſus, of ſixty-ſix, hon. George Bridges Rodney, commander; Monarch, of ſeventy-four, Roger Martin, Eſq; the captain, of ſeventy,

seventy, Charles Catford, Esq; the Anson, of sixty, Charles Holmes, Esq; the Nottingham, of sixty, Samuel Marshal Esq; are ordered to be officered and manned to their full compliment, and fitted for sea with the utmost expedition at Portsmouth.

Several expresses from the public offices have within these few days been expedited to Plymouth and Portsmouth.

Regulating captains are to sit de die in diem, at the Castle tavern in Mark lane. Two worthy men are already appointed for that service, viz. John Brett and Robert Duff, Esqrs.

London, Febr. 2. The Prince, a new ship of 90 guns, Charles Saunders, Esq; the St George, of 90 guns, Charles Colby, Esq; and the Torbay, of 74 guns, John Storr, Esq; commanders, were this week put into commission, and it is said that lord Anson will hoist his flag on board the Prince, Admiral Boscawen on board the St. George, and Sir Edward Hawke on board the Torbay.

The right hon. the lords of the admiralty have commanded 500 men of the watermen's company, which they are obliged to furnish on any emergency, if call'd upon.

Private letters from the ports of France make their naval preparations more formidable than the foreign gazettes; for, at Brest alone, according to these letters, there are fifty nine capital ships, several of which are in readiness to put to sea; and 'tis expected they may be all equipp'd before the end of April.

London, Feb. 4. This morning the India company shipp'd 480 pieces of brass ordnance for their settlements.

Last Wednesday his majesty in council was pleas'd to appoint Charles Hardy, Esq; to be governor of New-York, in the room of Sir D'Anvers Osborne, Bart. deceased.

By a letter from Portsmouth we are informed, that they go on vigorously in our marine affairs; the Terrible, one of the French ships, being cleaned and sheathed last wednesday in eight hours and three quarters, by Torch and Candle light: an instance of expedition hardly to be paralleled; she is of 74 Guns, and takes more sheathing board then any of our first rates.

London, Febr. 11. At a grand council held at St. James's on Thursday it was resolved, that a proclamation should be issued (which was accordingly published last Saturday) for recalling and prohibiting all masters of ships, pilots, mariners, seamen, shipwrights, and other seafaring men, his majesty's natural-born subjects, from serving Foreign princes and states; for giving further encouragement to seamen to enter themselves on board his majesty's ships of war, by increasing the bounty from forty shillings to three pounds to every able seaman, and from twenty shillings to two pounds to every ordinary seaman between the age of twenty and fifty, who shall voluntarily enter before the 10th of March next; and for granting a reward of two pounds to any person for discovering any able seaman, and thirty shillings for discovering any ordinary seaman, who shall secrete themselves, so that such seaman shall be taken for his majesty's service by any sea officer employed for raising men.

It is reported that the French have laid an embargo on all ships in their sea ports.

It is reported that two outlawed smugglers have lately made their appearance in town, and that they have made useful discoveries of some material transactions now upon the carpet in France.

CHARLES-TOWN, April 3.

We hope our Readers will excuse our not adventuring on the Character of the late Lieutenant-Governor BULL, as we promised in our last Gazette, and instead thereof, accept of what was spoken of him by His Excellency the Governor at the Council-Chamber, to the principal Inhabitants of Charles-Town, who attended on His Excellency upon that melancholy Occasion, and which one of them has favoured us with.

"Gentlemen,

I Sent for you to the Council-Chamber, that I might condole with you upon the Death of the Late Lieutenant-Governor. I thought it proper to pay this Regard to the Memory of a worthy Magistrate, at the Time that his Friends are committing to the Earth the Remains of the Man. A Consciousness that I am unable to give him the Character he deserves, deters me from attempting it: But, were I equal to the Task, I consider how unnecessary it would be in this Place, as the Sense of the Benefits flowing from his wise and just Administration of the Government, is still deeply engraven on your grateful Hearts, and will, I doubt not, remain legible many Years. Thus much I may venture to say, that he was a good Man, and a good Magistrate. The Advantage that the World derives from the Example of the Life of such a Person, even in a Private Station, is a public Blessing; it deserves public Acknowledgments; and the Loss is a public Calamity. But it would be unpardonable in me, to pass over in Silence the other Part of his Character; the Part that he acted in public Life. He went thro' all the Places or Posts in this Country with Distinction; none could have been offered to him, that he had not Abilities to discharge; none would have been accepted by him, that he did not intend to execute with Fidelity; and he did execute them all with Diligence and Dignity. His Behaviour in the several Stations of the Militia, was not more to his own Credit, than for his Country's Benefit: He was one of those Captains who with their Companies marched up to the Cherokee-Nation in the Indian War, and it is probably owing to that March, that we have this Opportunity, so long after, of commemorating that Æra; for had the Cherokees and Creeks joined at that Time, which nothing prevented but the resolute Behaviour of our Militia; it might have proved fatal, it must have been, at least, very dangerous to the Province. Let me next point him out to you, moving in the higher Spheres of a Counsellor, President of the Council, Commander in Chief, and Lieutenant-Governor. In whatever Light he be viewed, he will appear to Advantage: But the many excellent Laws that he passed speak his Praise better than I am able. He was careful in passing these Laws; he was vigilant in executing them; he procured Obedience to them, not so much by the Weight of his Power, as by the Authority of his own Practice, for no Man was more obedient to the Laws than he himself. You all have Reason to lament the Loss of him, but I most of all, for I was frequently benefited by following his Advice, more frequently by imitating his Example, and when I could not equal, I endeavoured to copy after him. I shall bequeath this Advice to my Successor, Go, and do thou likewise."

This universally lamented Gentleman, was born in this Province, in the Year 1683, and died at Sheldon (the Name of his Seat) the 23d ult. aged 72 Years, wanting only a few Days, and was interred in Prince William's Parish Church (which he was the principal Instrument in building, and is esteemed the most elegant and compleatest Country-Church in America) on the 24th. From the 22d, when the News of his Death was receiv'd in Town, to the 24th, the Forts and all the Vessels in the Harbour hoisted their Colours in Mourning; and the last Afternoon, Minute-Guns were fired from Johnson, and Granville's Bastion, and a great Number from the Sloop Betsey, Capt. Urquhart.

We hear from Ponpon, that last Thursday, Messrs. ARCHIBALD STOBO and DAVID MAYBANK, were married to Miss ELIZABETH CRAVING and Miss HANNAH SPLATT, two very agreeable young Ladies of Merit, and with good Fortunes.
